

This gift represents rice for a month for the whole family of one of our scholarship recipients. For very poor families this makes the difference between allowing their daughter to stay in school or pulling her out to work in the fields or garment factories to feed the family.

Preventing trafficking and exploitation through enabling education for girls in Cambodia lotus outreach australia

education-opportunity-action

