

Preventing trafficking and exploitation through enabling education for girls in Cambodia
This gift represents rice for a month for a girl's family. This means she will be able to stay in school rather than working in a garment factory to support her family when unexpected challenges arise.

education-opportunity-action
lotus outreach australia

