

Preventing trafficking and exploitation through enabling education for girls in Cambodia

This gift represents one year's education for a young girl in Cambodia, who will receive school supplies, uniforms and ongoing support to ensure she succeeds in school and is not forced into slave labour.

lotus outreach australia
education-opportunity-action

